

Please DO NOT lift the ban on using cellular phones on airborne aircraft. People who use these are mostly inconsiderate of those around them who do not want to listen to their conversation. In a small confined space like an airplane a cell phone conversation will be very disturbing.